

Interview with Helen Adams

Q: What were you doing on the day of April 21?

A: I was gardening in my front yard.

Q: Did you see any suspicious activity?

A: Yes.

Q: Can you describe to me in detail what you saw?

A: All I saw was someone walking from the house across the street.

Q: Can you describe this person?

A: No, the person was wearing a hoodie.

Q: Did you see anyone else exit the house?

A: No.

Q: Where was your husband?

A: Washing his car in the drive way.

Q: Did you ever leave your house during the time of the accident?

A: No, our favorite TV shows are on that night.

Interview with Greg Adams

Q: What were you doing on the day of April 21?

A: I was washing my car.

Q: Did you see any suspicious activity?

A: Yes.

Q: Can you please describe in detail what you saw?

A: Out of the corner of my eye, I saw more than one person enter and exit the house.

Q: Did you recognize any of these people?

A: No. One person was wearing dark clothing, and the rest I didn't really look at enough to remember.

Q: Where was your wife at this time?

A: She was watering our purple tulips in the front yard.

Q: Did you go anywhere during the time of the accident?

A: No, because I had to watch "The Bachelorette" with my wife... she makes me.
